1. Report of the Portfolio Committee on Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities on the Draft Notice on the Determination of Remuneration of Independent Constitutional Institutions, dated 21 April 2026.

The Portfolio Committee on Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities, having considered the draft notice of the President's determination of the salaries and allowances of members of various institutions, including the Commission for Gender Equality (CGE), reports as follows:

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 A letter, dated 10 January 2026, (ATC'd 13 March 2026) was received from the President of the Republic, requesting the National Assembly to consider the draft notice of determination of the salaries and allowances of members of various institutions, including the Commission for Gender Equality in terms of the Determination of Remuneration of Office-Bearers of Independent Constitutional Institutions Laws Amendment Act, 2014 (Act No. 22 of 2014) for 2023/22024 and 2024/2025, usually required by the end of the financial year.
- 1.2 On 25 March 2026, the matter was referred to the Committee for consideration and report as per the ATC No. 45 of 13 March 2026.
- 1.3 Section 219 (5) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, provides that national legislation must establish frameworks for determining the salaries, allowances and benefits of judges, the Public Protector, the Auditor-General, and members of any commission provided for in the Constitution, including the Commission for Gender Equality referred to in section 187 of the Constitution.
- 1.4 The Determination of Remuneration of Office-Bearers of Independent Constitutional Institutions Laws Amendment Act, 2014 (Act No. 22 of 2014), which came into operation on 1 April 2019, creates the necessary framework to determine the salaries of office-bearers of Chapter 9 institutions mentioned in the Constitution.

- 1.5 Section 8 (1) of the Commission for Gender Equality Act 39 of 1996 provides that the full time and part-time members of the Commission for Gender Equality are entitled to an annual salaries and such allowances or benefits as determined by the President from time to time by notice in the Gazette and approved by the National Assembly.
- 1.6 The President received the annual salary recommendations for the public office-bearers including members of the Independent Constitutional Institutions, from the Independent Commission for the Remuneration of Public Office Bearers (the Commission).
- 1.7 The Commission having considered, amongst others, the role, status, duties, functions and responsibilities of the Public Office Bearers; affordability of different levels of remuneration; current principles and levels of remuneration, particularly in respect of organs of state; inflation and available resources of the State, salary increment on the fiscus of the country recommended a 4.1% salary increment for all public office bearers for the financial year 2025/2026.
