MOTIONS (Notice given on 9 June 2026):

1. Subject for discussion (Ms F L Shabangu): Building local technological capacity and skills to manufacture and improve access to affordable medicines.

26dn63e

2. Subject for discussion (Mr C F B Smit): The impact and effect of broad-based black economic empowerment on economic growth, job creation, investment, entrepreneurship and transformation in South Africa.

26dn64e

3. Subject for discussion (Mr W M Douglas): The broader concerns about racism and student safety at institutions of higher learning, and interventions required to protect constitutional rights in light of the death of Stellenbosch University student, Antonio Britto.

26dn65e

4. Draft resolution (Ms P Marais): That the House –

   (1) notes with concern the marked disappearance of veteran and seasoned local actors from our television and film screens;

   (2) recognises the invaluable contributions and experience actors make to the cultural and creative industry, as well as to the social fabric of our society;

   (3) acknowledges the challenges faced by these actors, including but not limited to ageism, lack of opportunities and inadequate support mechanisms within the industry;

   (4) calls upon all relevant stakeholders, including broadcasters, production companies and government departments to create opportunities and support mechanisms for seasoned actors to ensure that they remain active and visible in the sector; and

   (5) further calls for a review of policies and practices within the creative and cultural sector to address the exclusion and marginalisation of experienced talent.

26dn66e

5. Subject for discussion (Ms M L Mofokeng): Dealing with acts of criminality such as illegal mining, which has caused and continues to cause a great deal of anger and anguish in communities.

26dn67e

6. Subject for discussion (Ms B E Machi): The dangers posed to township economics by illegal trading, and the shared responsibility of the Department of Small Business Development and citizens to enforce compliance and uphold community safety.

26dn68e

7. Draft resolution (Mr M V Daniels): That the House –

   (1) notes the draft proposal for the Parliamentary and Provincial Medical Aid Scheme Amendment Bill [B25-2025];

   (2) further notes that this important legislation seeks to amend the Parliamentary and Provincial Medical Aid Scheme Act, 1975, so as to substitute compulsory membership of the Parmed Medical Aid Scheme with voluntary membership; to substitute certain outdated terminology; to amend the long title; to provide for transitional measures; and to provide for matters connected therewith;

(3) recognises the recent resolution passed by the Eastern Cape Provincial Legislature, permitting its members to select private medical schemes as an alternative to Parmed, and allowing those who wish to remain with Parmed to do so freely; and

(4) further recognises that this progressive move underscores the necessity for our own Parliament to re-evaluate the existing mandates and adapt to the evolving landscape of health care options available to public representatives.

26dn69e

8. Subject for discussion (Dr W J Boshoff): The recognition of Afrikaners as an independent and indigenous people in Africa, and the establishment of statutory representative entity for cultural self-determination of Afrikaners who identify with and join themselves to the entity, in line with section 235 of the South African Constitution.

26dn70e

9. Draft resolution (Mr R A P Trollip): That the House –

(1) notes with concern the continued spread of foot-and-mouth disease and the severe consequences it holds for South Africa's livestock industry, agricultural exports and rural livelihoods;

(2) further notes the Department of Agriculture's stated commitment to constructive engagement with industry stakeholders and the private sector in responding to the outbreak;

(3) acknowledges the important role played by farmers, veterinarians and private-sector partners in combating the disease, as did the recent court judgment in this regard; and

(4) calls on the department to ensure that all officials engage stakeholders in a professional, respectful and solutions-orientated manner following recent reports of a senior staff member in the Ministry treating the concerns of an affected stakeholder organisation with apparent disregard and disrespect.

26dn71e

10. Subject for discussion (Ms L B Sapo): Investing in digital literacy to help small businesses leverage e-commerce platforms.

26dn72e

11. Subject for discussion (Mr S N Swart): The looming shortage of piped natural gas for industrial purposes, known as the gas supply cliff risk, given the rapid depletion of the Pande and Temane natural gas fields in Mozambique and Sasol's scaling back and halting of external gas supply, with Sasol being the primary supplier of piped natural gas in the country.

26dn73e

12. Subject for discussion (Ms F Mbiko): The urgent need for oversight and intervention regarding the rape of elderly women in the rural Eastern Cape, with specific reference to the recent case of rape-convicted Siphumandla Makapela in Dikeni (Alice).

26dn74e

13. Subject for discussion (Mr D D D van Rooyen): The implications of the introduction of Lenacapavir as an HIV prevention intervention, including its potential impact on public health, behavioural patterns and the prevalence of other sexually transmitted infections in health embattled South Africa.

26dn75e

14. Subject for discussion (Ms B K Diale): Mechanisms available for the Department of Water and Sanitation to tackle non-compliance by municipalities in respect of Blue, Green and No Drop requirements, including submission and subsequent implementation of corrective action plans or Green Drop improvement plans.

26dn76e

15. Subject for discussion (Ms C T Nontenja): The recent reported death of an employee, Gcina Dhladhla, while on duty at her workplace and the widespread public debate on the treatment of workers and conditions in the workplace.

26dn77e

16. Subject for discussion (Mrs M B Pholwane): Creating a safe and nurturing environment for all children, allowing them to grow and thrive as asserted in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

26dn78e

17. Subject for discussion (Mr C M Dugmore): Ending food waste and making the dumping of edible food illegal.

26dn79e

18. Subject for discussion (Mr I Ismail-Moosa): The banning of scholars from the Zionist Israeli entity from attending any future conferences to be held in South Africa.

26dn80e

19. Subject for discussion (Ms C Labuschagne): Legislative accountability interventions against municipal managers and mayors following recent concerning declining financial audit outcomes for metropolitan municipalities.

26dn81e

20. Subject for discussion (Ms N K Bilankulu): Building a resilient system ready to face future disasters such as deadly epidemics and crises caused by damage to the environment.

26dn82e

21. Subject for discussion (Dr L W Mahlatsi): The negative impact of child hunger on educational outcomes, cognitive development, school attendance and long-term economic productivity of many learners in South African society.

26dn83e

22. Subject for discussion (Mr T I Gamede): The impact of the huge reduction in refining capacity over the past seven years, and necessary measures to halt the importation of refined products and ensure that the country builds domestic capacity to refine crude oil.

26dn84e

23. Subject for discussion (Mr D D Klopper): The need to deter crime through the certainty of swift prosecution by capacitating the National Prosecuting Authority, NPA, securing its independence and giving it control over its own budget.

26dn85e

24. Subject for discussion (Ms N E Nkosi): The hegemonic role of culture to bind all national groupings towards one common nationality and South African citizenship.

25. Draft resolution (Ms B K Diale): That the House –

(1) notes the growing public concern regarding undocumented migration, border management, and the enforcement of immigration laws in various parts of South Africa;

(2) further notes the commitment by the President and government to strengthen border management, improve immigration enforcement, and address challenges relating to undocumented migration through lawful and constitutional means;

(3) acknowledges that concerns relating to immigration, public safety, service delivery, and the integrity of the immigration system require urgent and coordinated action by the relevant organs of state;

(4) recognises that the effective enforcement of immigration laws, while safeguarding the rights and dignity of all persons within the Republic, is essential for maintaining public confidence, social cohesion, and the rule of law;

(5) affirms that all persons within the Republic are entitled to the protection of the law and that disputes relating to immigration policy must be addressed through lawful and democratic processes;

(6) calls upon the South African Police Service and all relevant law-enforcement authorities to act decisively against any individual or group that takes the law into its own hands, while simultaneously ensuring that immigration laws are enforced in a lawful, constitutional and humane manner; and

(7) mandates the Portfolio Committees on Home Affairs, Police, and Defence and Military Veterans to convene joint public hearings inviting public submissions on the crisis and measures being undertaken to address undocumented migration, border management, immigration enforcement, and related security concerns; and to table such reports before the National Assembly.

26. Draft resolution (Ms E R J Spies): That the House –

(1) notes with grave concern the findings contained in two independent reports recently tabled before Parliament's Portfolio Committee on Social Development, which expose serious departmental failures, irregular appointments and apparent breakdowns in accountability within the Department;

(2) further notes that the reports raise disturbing questions regarding adherence to Cabinet decisions, compliance with public service prescripts, executive oversight, and the integrity of appointment processes within government;

(3) recognises that allegations of irregular appointments and possible manipulation of administrative processes strike at the heart of efforts to build a professional, ethical and capable public service;

(4) further recognises that public confidence in state institutions is eroded whenever rules appear to be selectively applied and accountability is delayed or avoided;

(5) acknowledges that the Department of Public Service and Administration bears a constitutional responsibility to uphold merit-based appointments, professional standards and ethical governance across the public service;

(6) realises that a capable state cannot be built on manipulated appointments, ignored warnings and selective accountability;

(7) further realises that the professionalisation of the public service demands consequences, regardless of rank or position; and

(8) calls for all allegations and findings contained in these reports to be subjected to thorough, transparent and independent investigation, for those found responsible to face appropriate consequence management regardless of rank or position, and for urgent measures to be implemented to safeguard the integrity of public service appointments and restore public trust in government institutions.

27. Draft resolution (Ms M C Mafagane): That the House –

(1) notes the current Parliamentary cycle of constitutional review and amendment;

(2) consider measures to elevate and affirm the status of customary law as the primary foundation of South Africa's legal system, above the inherited Roman Dutch and English legal tradition;

(3) realises that South Africa is not an appendage of Europe, but a sovereign African nation whose constitutional and legal order must increasingly reflect the values, customs, traditions and lived realities of its people;

(4) understands that for centuries, African systems of law governed social relations, property rights, dispute resolution and governance across this land;

(5) further realises that, despite constitutional recognition, customary law continues to occupy a subordinate position to legal traditions imported through colonial invasion; and

(6) believes that the values and ethos of the African majority should set the tone for the development of South African jurisprudence and that the constitutional review process presents an opportunity to advance legal decolonisation and restore the dignity of indigenous legal systems.

26dn89e

28. Draft resolution (Mr A D de Blocq van Scheltinga): That the House –

(1) recalls that the Musina-Makhado Special Economic Zone (MMSEZ) is located in the rural Vhembe Region of Limpopo Province;

(2) notes that the area's extremely high unemployment rate necessitates urgent economic development to provide jobs and poverty relief;

(3) recognises that the Vhembe region is one of South Africa's most biodiversity-rich areas including endemic and endangered species that are ecologically, economically, and culturally irreplaceable;

(4) further recognises that the area holds significant untapped agricultural potential;

(5) further notes the critical limitations of available water, road and rail networks, feedstock, and local skills for industrial development as initially proposed for this area;

(6) supports the adoption of an alternative economic development model that leverages the natural assets and context of the region, including biodiversity and green economy opportunities alongside agriculture; and

(7) acknowledges that this approach is more suitable and sustainable in this rural setting and will benefit both people and planet.

26dn90e

29. Draft resolution (Dr L W Mahlatsi): That the House –

(1) notes that section 29 of the Constitution guarantees every child the right to basic education, while section 23 guarantees the right to fair labour practices;

(2) further notes that thousands of qualified education graduates remain unemployed despite the existence of funded teaching posts, while many schools continue to face teacher shortages, overcrowded classrooms and poor learner outcomes;

(3) recognises that the continued use of temporary Teacher Contract Assistance posts creates employment insecurity and undermines the quality and continuity of teaching and learning;

(4) believes that South Africa cannot continue producing qualified teachers only to leave them unemployed while learners are denied the quality education guaranteed by our Constitution; and

(5) request the Portfolio Committee on Basic Education within its oversight mandate to hold the Department of Basic Education to account on the filling of funded vacant teaching posts, and for the department to present a clear plan for the permanent absorption of qualified education graduates.

26dn91e

30. Draft resolution (Mr L Mphithi): That the House –

(1) laments that in the last financial year, the Department, with a budget of R34 billion, only built 35 457 houses, while the Department of Housing in 1998/1999 with a budget of only R16 billion (adjusted for inflation), built 235 635 houses;

(2) recognises that our country's housing crisis is not a funding issue inherently – but a capacity issue within the various divisions of the Department;

(3) believes that our country will not close its pervasive inequality gap without accelerated housing and title deed delivery;

(4) acknowledges the recommendation by Operation Vulindlela in March 2025 that the Department of Human Settlements implements an integrated housing and title deed system with relevant departments; and

(5) encourages the Department of Human Settlements to partner with the private sector in accelerating the delivery of state-subsidy homes.

ERRATUM: Correct version of motion previously published on 11 August 2026.

MOTIONS (Notice given on 8 July 2026):

1. Draft resolution (Mr J S Malema): That the House –

(1) notes that:

(a) section 52(4) of the Constitution provides that the National Assembly may remove the Speaker from office by resolution, provided that a majority of the members of the Assembly are present when such resolution is adopted;

(b) in terms of section 42(3) of the Constitution, the National Assembly exists to represent the people, provide a national forum for public consideration of issues, and scrutinise and oversee executive action;

(c) in terms of section 55(2) of the Constitution, the National Assembly must ensure accountability and maintain oversight over executive organs of state;

(d) the impeachment process established in terms of section 89 of the Constitution is among the most serious constitutional accountability mechanisms available to Parliament and is intended to ensure that no President is above constitutional scrutiny;

(e) the Constitutional Court in Economic Freedom Fighters and Another v Speaker of the National Assembly and Others [2026] ZACC 17 ordered the National Assembly to proceed with the section 89 impeachment process against President Cyril Ramaphosa; and

(f) the Speaker, as the presiding officer of the National Assembly, bears a constitutional duty to protect, defend and uphold the institutional authority, independence and integrity of Parliament;

(2) further notes that the Speaker:

(a) failed to defend Parliament in one of the most significant constitutional accountability processes in democratic South Africa, namely the first impeachment process against a sitting President;

(b) chose partisan political interests over Parliament's constitutional obligations by refusing to oppose President Ramaphosa's urgent application to interdict the work of the Impeachment Committee;

(c) disregarded legal advice obtained by her office recommending that Parliament oppose litigation aimed at undermining the impeachment process;

(d) opted to rely on a different legal opinion from a law firm associated with a former Treasurer-General of the African National Congress, thereby deepening concerns regarding impartiality, institutional independence and political bias;

(e) acted in a unilateral, opaque and non-consultative manner on matters affecting the constitutional integrity of Parliament, contrary to the democratic and multiparty character of the National Assembly;

(f) failed to appreciate that in a multiparty Parliament, particularly where no single party enjoys overwhelming dominance, decisions affecting the institutional position of Parliament require transparency, consultation and political accountability;

(g) repeatedly conducted herself in a manner that undermines confidence in her ability to act impartially and independently as Speaker of the National Assembly; and

(h) brought the standing, credibility and authority of the National Assembly into disrepute by persistently placing party political considerations above constitutional obligations; and

(3) resolves to remove Ms Thoko Didiza, MP, from office as Speaker of the National Assembly in terms of section 52(4) of the Constitution.
